Making Gay Okay: How Rationalizing Homosexual Behavior Is ...

The homosexual cause moved naturally from a plea for tolerance to cultural conquest because the security of its rationalization requires universal acceptance. In other words, we all must say that the bad is good.

Making Gay Okay: How Rationalizing Homosexual Behavior Is ...

In his new book, Making Gay Okay, Robert Reilly sets out to explain these recent changes and make sense of the murky moral and legal cultural landscape in which these phenomena have taken root. Reilly divides his book into two parts: the first part explores the logic behind the rationalization of homosexual behavior (and same-sex marriage), and the second part takes the reader on a whirlwind ride through major US institutions, demonstrating how the gay lobby has conquered each in turn.

Making Gay Okay: How Rationalizing Homosexual Behavior is ...

Doctor Joseph Nicolosi says of Making Gay Okay: How Rationalizing Homosexual Behavior Is Changing Everything - "If you read only one book on homosexuality, natural law theory, and the radical changes now being instituted within our culture, let it be this one!" Why are Americans being forced to consider homosexual acts as morally acceptable?

Making Gay Okay: How Rationalizing Homosexual Behavior Is ...

First, the yes. This book does do a wonderful job of tracing how the sexual revolution has made gay okay in our current culture. Reilly does a fine job of presenting the facts (which don't care about your feelings by the way!), and the illogical rationale of those that seek to make gay okay.
