The Autobiography Of An Execution

The Autobiography of an Execution is a fascinating account of some of the details of the legal struggle, as well as the emotional burden of the corrupt process that leads to execution. It is a very personal and very human record of one man's struggle. Hard to put down. Hard to ignore.

The Autobiography of an Execution: David R. Dow ...

The first thought in reading The Autobiography of an Execution was that David Dow's life reminded me an awful lot of that of Mitch McDeere from The Firm. Not the mafia parts; just the long hours, beautiful wife, running and drinking and eating parts. I'm not sure if this was subconscious (I'm betting Dow has read Grisham), or if it just means that this is the life of a busy, driven Southern lawyer.
